

METHODS IN MATERIAL CULTURE GRADUATE STUDENT WORKING GROUP

Wednesday, May 24th | Noon – 1 p.m.
UD History Department Conference Room (203 Munroe Hall)

OBJECT FIGHT CLUB

Join us for OBJECT FIGHT CLUB, a working group meeting devoted to "confronting" objects for the first time. OBJECT FIGHT CLUB will introduce two material culture pedagogical techniques that can be used with your students, or to enrich your own work. We will also plan summer field trips and our fall speaker series. The first rule of OBJECT FIGHT CLUB is to talk to everyone you know about OBJECT FIGHT CLUB.

Enjoy a free lunch!

Meet other graduate students interested in material culture!

Learn about new research methods!

Benefit from fresh insights into your work!

Help build a COMMUNITY of material culture scholars at UD!

RSVP BY MONDAY, MAY 22ND

Email everidge@udel.edu and/or alames@udel.edu to confirm your attendance.

Photo: Courtesy, Winterthur Museum, figure group: John Heenan and Tom Sayers (pugilists or boxers), 1860-1865, Staffordshire, England, white earthenware, lead glaze, gift of Thomas N. and A. Pat Bernard, 2002.30.41.