Object Study at the Winterthur Museum, Garden, & Library

Monday, October 9, 2017 | 5105 Kennett Pike, Wilmington, DE 19807 | 2:00 – 4:30 p.m.

Join Winterthur scholars, curators, librarians, and conservators for an in-depth object study session focusing on artifacts in the Winterthur collection. We will examine wood and textiles, consider the room installation as an interpretive tool, and hone our object-based research techniques! The group will then retire to Buckley's Tavern (5812 Kennett Pike, Wilmington, DE 19807) for discussion, drinks, and complimentary hors d'oeuvres.

Free and open to UD graduate students, though space is limited. RSVP by Friday, October 6th to Alex Ames (alames@udel.edu).
